TOWN OF BETTERTON
INFILL DEVELOPMENT APPLICATION CHECKLIST

Applications for approval under the provisions of the Infill Development Overlay District require more detail than other regular building permits. Those applications are then reviewed by the Betterton Planning Commission in addition to the regular permit review. The Planning Commission review considers, among other items, the compatibility of the proposed structure with the existing homes on the street and they have sole discretion to approve or disapprove the special flexibility available under the Infill District provisions. The following checklist is intended to help you meet the requirements for such review.
